For Beat 5 Vacancy

School Board Election Set

After members were unable to agree on a successor for the late A. Gordon Courage, the county school board agreed on a special election to fill the unexpired term at a meeting Saturday.

The election, scheduled for June 3, will be among qualified electors of Beat 5 out of the Bay.

St. Louis Municipal Separate School District. It will be conducted at the regular polling places of Lakeshore and Clermont Harbor between 7 a.m. and 6 p.m. A petition signed by at least 50 of the qualified voters involved is required for a name to be placed on the ballot.

Mrs. Malcolm Green of Lakeshore asked the board to appoint Courage's widow to serve the unexpired term and presented a petition in her behalf signed by 196 persons. Asked if the list had been checked to see if all were qualified voters, she replied no but knew it contained more than one-fourth of the qualified voters.

Kiln Road Pole Solution Seen

Highway Commissioner John Smith has indicated the highway department will bear the expense of relocation of transmission lines and poles of Coast Electric Power Assn. between U. S. 90 and Kiln.

The lines and poles are presently located on private right-of-way but are obstructions on the route of the proposed state road. During an open board of directors meeting of Coast Electric Tuesday, Smith indicated this possibility in a telephone conversation with the co-op's president, Randolph Rester, and the board of supervisors' attorney, Lucien M. Gex.

When the supervisors met again on the matter Wednesday Smith telephoned the board to advise what steps should be taken for the question to properly come before the highway commissioners.

Speaking to Gex, Smith indicated that the board reached its decision December 1959, minutes on Gex' suggestion agreed that the minutes be amended by resolution adopted Wednesday reading in part "The board finds that the removal of certain utility lines on the right-of-way conveyed to the State Highway Commission was overlooked and whereas the recent flooded conditions have caused expense and whereas the board is without funds to effectuate the necessary removal of the utility lines from the right-of-way, therefore the board of supervisors respectfully requests the State Highway Commission to amend its order of Jan. 12, 1960, so as to provide that provision."

Pucheu Runs for Council, Johnson for Mayoralty

LUCAS F. PUCHEU, JR.

Lucas F. Pucheu, Jr., dry cleaning and laundry operator, this week formally announced his candidacy for city commissioner in the May Democratic primary, seeking to replace the late Mayor John A. Scalfide.

A three-way race shaped up for the office of mayor with former sheriff Burton D. Johnson disclosing he will seek that post. Mayor John A. Scalfide already has Russell Elliott, Beat 5 justice of the peace, as an opponent.

Midnight, April 8, is the deadline for candidates to qualify for the primary, George Stevenson, city Democratic chairman, reminded. There have been no indications recently of other likely candidates for the May 9 primary.

Coast Electric's board of directors firmly backed manager Hardin H. Shattuck's position that the utility could not be required to move the transmission poles at its own expense and that the organization could not absorb the expense without an increase in rates. Gex concurred on the legal point and suggested the phone call to Smith.

At the conclusion of the open board session, attended by supervisors R. G. Hubbard and L. M. Frierson and interested association members, Rester reiterated that Shattuck should take no action.

Blood Bank Meets Tuesday

Preparations for the new blood drawing will be made at a meeting of the Hancock County Blood Bank scheduled at 8 p.m. Tuesday at the American Legion Home, Secretary Edward M. Hough has announced.

The drawing will be April 11 at the Youth Center. He noted that the blood stored at Foundation Hospital in New Orleans is now below 40 pints and a good turnout will be needed to replenish the supply.

Gordon Elected Rotarian Prexy

W. Ray Gordon, moving up from vice president, has been elected president of Rotary Club succeeding Dr. Walter C. Russo, Carl T. Smith was re-elected secretary-treasurer and Thomas J. Garner is the new vice president.

Henry Maddox, assistant to the president of Mississippi Industries, Inc., spoke to the club Wednesday on the purposes and activities of the corporation.

3 Youths Sentenced In Burglary Series

Three Bay St. Louis teenage boys indicted on a series of burglary charges were sentenced by Judge Leslie E. Grant in Circuit Court this morning to six months in county jail and a five year suspended sentence on each indictment, seven others were sentenced before the lunch recess.

They are John Gotschall, August Ramey, III, and Gerald Cholina. Similar indictments against Charles Gotschall were continued to the September term since he is now in the Navy.

The three boys were given the six months term on a charge of willful trespassing. Gotschall pleaded guilty to 11 charges of burglary, Cholina to five and Ramey to eight.

District Attorney Boyce Hallman said the three boys "have been in a great deal of difficulty" and he didn't "know what's wrong with their thinking." He said that while he didn't believe they should serve time in the state penitentiary probation alone was not sufficient, adding "they need to know what the inside of a jail looks like."

The DA warned them after serving their six months in jail and when on probation "if they violate their probation or violate the law I will ask immediate revocation of the suspended sentences and see that they serve the sentences in the state penitentiary."

After passing the sentences Judge Grant commented that "I hope you boys will appreciate the attitude the state is taking in these cases and will go ahead and become good citizens." He told them to "just go ahead and stay on the straight path and these five years will pass before you know it."

Four Negroes indicted for burglarizing the dressing rooms in Volcan C. Jones School and taking apparel and other items belonging to a basketball team from Gulfport, each were sentenced to two years suspended and put on probation one year.

They are Andrew McKay and Rudolph Robinson, both 19, and Michael Warren and Henry Bell, both 18.

Charles Pucheu got two years suspended for grand larceny in theft of an automobile motor and was placed on probation for two years. Benjamin Adkins, who previously pleaded innocent to a grand larceny indictment, changed his plea to guilty and got two years suspended.

Zack Blackwell, indicted on a fondling charge, was fined $1,000.

Wednesday Carl Johnson, now serving a six months sentence in county jail for aiding prostitution, was given two years in the state penitentiary for an attempted jail break from county jail.

On Monday Bobby Bazar changed his plea to charges of armed robbery and grand larceny from innocent to guilty. He was sentenced to 20 years for armed robbery and two years for grand larceny, the sentences to run concurrently.

In civil action, the case of Adam Falkenstein and Myrdo Falkenstein vs. Birch Bankston and James Anasley was dismissed. Associated Discount Co. vs. Leon Smith, judgment for plaintiff.

Although he contends $900 of a $700 fee was paid to one lawyer, his father, Andrew Maydon, sat at his side whispering advice and suggesting questions on the various witnesses took the stand. His father told the Echo they will appeal the sentence to a higher court if they are able to get an attorney within the 10 day time limit.

The defendant remarked he enjoyed trying to plead his own case before the court and said he believes he would like to study while in prison to become a lawyer. He said "I'm going to look up these law books at Parchman and see what I can do for myself for the future."

Courtroom talk was that the boy did a good job defending himself. While he had trouble at times working questions to witnesses within the rules of evidence, he continued throughout the hearing asking sensible questions.

The youth defended himself.

Convicted, Hopes To Study Law In Pen

Jerry Slaydon, 22, sentenced to five years imprisonment for grand larceny Monday, said he would like to study law in prison and later become a lawyer.

Following a trial that lasted most of the court day the jury was out eight minutes and returned with a verdict finding Slaydon guilty of having participated in the theft of a pickup truck in New Orleans and transporting the truck across the state line to Mississippi.

Slaydon and Sunny Bay Mitchell, now serving a sentence for the same crime went to New Orleans in February last year to see the Mardi Gras, Mitchell, brought here to testify in the case, stated he and Slaydon stole the truck and drove it to Hancock County. Slaydon testified he left Mitchell in New Orleans and returned here and was not involved in the truck theft.

The youth defended himself.

We're Growing Boats Abuilding Here

AUGUST RADKEY, JR. CHECKS TWO COMPLETED BOATS.

Fifteen boats already built with more on the way in the progress of the area's newest industry started earlier this year by August Ramey, Jr., well known Bay St. Louis general contractor.

With the idea of keeping his regular employees busy in off seasons, Ramey purchased a building adjacent to the ice house across from the L and N station, added machinery and started building boats earlier this year.

Although the contractor has not yet named his new business he appears hopeful it will flourish if he can find suitable outlets in the Gulfport and New Orleans areas. He is even considering exhibiting the boats in the next New Orleans boat show.

The craft currently being built are 12 and 14 foot double enders, which are particularly adapted to stream and river fishing and consequently are ideal, according to Ramey, for the bayous and streams in this area. For this reason the builder believes local sales will increase with the coming of good fishing weather here.

Should the boats, which so far have no trade name, prove popular, large orders may be forthcoming, according to the entrepreneur. Should this happen, he adds, a full time work force

Two Men On A Log

Sitting on a log on the beach at a location near where his bronze bust now rests at the foot of Twenty-fifth Avenue in Gulfport, Judge W. H. Hardy of Meridian and Colonel R. H. Henry, editor of the Clarion-Ledger of Jackson, looked out to the sea and into the future.

Judge Hardy, organizer of the Gulf & Ship Island Railroad, founder of Hattiesburg and Gulfport, was discussing his plans to build a city and port and was seeking a name. He had already named Hattiesburg in honor of his wife Hattie.

Colonel Henry asked what kind of a city he had in mind, and Judge Hardy said it would be "the port of the Gulf." Editor Henry suggested, "Why not call it Gulfport?" So in their imagination, Gulfport emerged from the sand to become the southern terminus of the Gulf & Ship Island Railroad. In the financial crisis of 1893, Captain J. T. Jones of Buffalo, a one-time Union soldier, joined Confederate veteran Hardy to finance the project to fruition.

The privately owned pier and port were finally purchased by the Illinois Central Railway, and later by the City of Gulfport, and at long last have now become the property of Mississippi, a state port authority.

Many men have contributed to the building of this port and city. The people of every state on tidewater in the nation have built one or more ports, which have become important feeders for a people's economy, to stimulate their commerce and develop their industry.

Mississippi has made a bold step into the future as the plans of Judge W. H. Hardy, dreamer and builder, and the labors of many merge into a momentous realization and golden opportunity.

The prestige of the state, the joint efforts of agriculture and business, the support of public officials, and the active cooperation of Mississippians, can make the Port of Gulfport a major asset and factor in the industrial development and prosperity of a people on their way to new achievement.

Pearlington Rites Unite Ann Garcia, Gerald Usher

Miss Loreta Ann Garcia became the bride of Gerald Matthew Usher in a double ring ceremony at 2 p.m. Sunday at St. Joseph's Catholic Church, Pearlinton, with the Rev. J. Hayes officiating before an altar banked with arrangements of spring flowers and greenery.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Garcia of Pearlinton and the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Prudence Asher of Bay St. Louis.

The bride was attired in a short frock of white net over satin fashioned on princess lines and with a rounded neckline. Her shoulder-length veil fell from a coronet encrusted with rhinestones and her flowers were white carnations.

Mrs. Harbert Wilkerson of Gretna, La., sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a blue silk dress with matching accessories and a corsage of white flowers.

James Asher was best man for his brother.

Arrangements of white flowers decorated the parish hall where the reception followed. The bride's table was covered with white lace of a pink satin undercloth and held the tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom.

A green, gold and white color scheme prevailed. The dining table, covered with white lace cloth, held a milk glass bowl filled with white calla lilies. At one end was a large double wedding cake trimmed with wedding rings and doves.

Woodland Conservationist Addresses Flatop HD Club

Joe Zary of Hattiesburg, woodland conservationist for South Mississippi, addressed the Flatop Home Demonstration Club meeting last Thursday at the home of Mrs. James Fargason, speaking on the educational topic, Mississippi Women Look at Conservation.

Using slides for his demonstrations on conservation of trees, grass and water, he observed that God created the earth and then created man and appointed him steward over the earth. Stewardship duties include planting trees where trees had been cut down, making proper use of water and planting trees and grass to prevent erosion, he declared, "for man with all his mechanical genius and devices cannot produce one grain of land."

Hugh Sanford, area soil conservationist, introduced the speaker.

Mrs. W. A. Gasper, president, opened the session with the thought for the month, Accomplish a Day Will Never Drive Friends Away. Mrs. Lillian Jones, guest of the hostess, read the collect and the roll call by Mrs. Paul Bounds, secretary.

was answered with My Favorite Accessory. Mrs. V. G. Cade gave the treasurer's report.

Mrs. Marcia Hughes, home agent, gave the demonstration on spring accessories, assisting members with the county HD dress review on Thursday, April 6, at the Agricultural Center.

The meeting was adjourned with the club pledge read by Mrs. Lillian Slay, vice president. Others attending were Mesdames Sudie Hudson, Katherine Eccles, Offie Penton, Katherine White, Rena Turner, Marie Cuevas, Ossie Mae Davis, Maude Wheat, Marjorie Bounds, Bessie Knight, Beulah Parrish, Marie Whitfield, Ola Moran of Clermont Harbor.

Plans were discussed for the trip to be awarded a 4-H member next year and members were urged to participate in the style review at 1:30 p.m. Tuesday, April 6, at the center.

Mrs. Buzz won the attendance

The bride's mother received in a blue dress with matching accessories while the groom's mother selected a yellow and black ensemble.

After a brief wedding trip to Gretna, La., the couple is residing at present with the groom's parents in Bay St. Louis and plan to move later to New Orleans.

Miss Ward Is Honored

A large green and gold Easter basket held gifts for Miss Harriet Ward when Mrs. James Arnold and Mrs. Clemmie Drev entertained in compliment to her Monday, March 20, at their home on Easterbrook Street. Miss Ward and David Clifton will be married at 2:30 p.m., Saturday, April 22, at Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church.

For the occasion, Miss Ward selected a beige suit with harmonizing accessories and received a corsage of purple lilies from her hostesses. Her mother, Mrs. Harry Calvin Ward, chose a green and white spring print and wore a white carnation corsage.

Teen times

The young men about town are polishing their shoes and also their cars. A rumor has it that several sororities have rented houses in Waveland for the big Easter weekend, so they will be nothing if not prepared for the visitors. Students in all schools are looking forward to the holidays and making plans accordingly.

Just about everyone who owns a summer home will be here for Easter - some members of the younger set who plan to spend their vacation in Waveland are Sandra Lozano, Colleen and Pauline Glass, Lizzie and David Dahlgren, Mary Frances Hubert, Jean and Frances Lister, Linda Herbig and Ronnie Stetson.

Vivian Korson was feted at a party given by her parents at their home in Gulf Gardens last Saturday night.

Congratulations to Jimmy Mayfield who was one of four local gridiron stars selected to play in the Mississippi High School All-Star game at Newell Field in Jackson on Aug. 11.

Cathy Cook and Thomas Mayfield were among the Rebel Riders who appeared in horse-show in Hattiesburg and Poplarville last week. . . they brought home ribbons from both competitions.

Bay High's senior play is scheduled for tonight, (Thursday) - and North Central will present its senior play, House for Sale - Hounded on April 14. Rip Kennedy of Waveland will take the part of Tug Ralston in the comedy drama.

Sally Yarbrough, accompanied by three guests from New Orleans, will visit her parents and grandparents Easter weekend.

We hear that Caroline Damens received a lovely gift from Billy Prevost who is now in the Army. . . also that Steve Stiefel is very busy courting a pretty Auburn haired miss who lives in the Bay.

Beta Club members at Bay High will go to New Orleans to visit the local chapters in the near future.

The ping pong tournament is now in progress at St. Joseph. . . George Stutz was in the second final and Mary Lou Harby attained the semi-final.

The May Quiza candidates at the Convent held a meeting last Thursday.

The skating rink is a very popular place these days - wonder if the fact that St. Stanislaus

'da Gone Fishin' Sailing Schedule Is Listed

BY EDDIE ENGELHORN

Who followed the movement of good water, as of weeks ago, found plenty of cooperation from plenty of fish, green trout and perch during the week. Fishing impossible.

Edie Engelnhorn informs us that black bass have been in the bayous near Pearl River — Dec Elliott appears the weekend hauling them in. Good catches in Mississippi Bayou out of Pat Kelly's place. Also in Joe Kern and an unidentified friend made a wind and rain continues to put a damper on salt water did notice two men fishing off the seawall with a net have been more than 18 inches of water but we caught nothing surprises us any more. We caught the best catches come from places where no one would waste his time. Sometimes the poorest catch is expensive.

And Fish Meet

On May 9 in Jackson there will be a public Game and Fish Commission to set up rules and regulations for hunting clubs, should plan to attend and have a lot of fishing and hunting laws. As the saying is, "forever hold your peace."

Every day in a good supply of shells, the season opens Saturday, April 1 through 9 and again from 10. Bag limit is two gobbles per year to the lucky

Crab Season

Crabs are being caught especially in the Waveland area but high nighttime tides and strong winds are making this sport. Tides will be more favorable next week on both flounder and soft shell crabs should get in the situation personally at Bayou Caddy Saturday night but there was absolutely nothing doing. Could be because of bad weather. But we did pick up a few in case anyone is troubled with stunks. The odor of campfire so if a family moves in your yard you have to do it spread a couple of handfuls of and they will pack up and leave. Didn't know stunks.

For forgot to mention a letter and clipping received from partner, Walter Fox, who divides his time between Bay St. Louis, Walter says whiting are biting place and caught 75 big bulls on one trip but they much sport as specks, reds and green trout such in places like Half Moon and the Louisiana marsh. Fish on the bottom in a rip tide with three hooks and but they don't fight very much. Well, Walter, what fish to do tied to a pound of lead?

In Boating

I brought you a pamphlet of rules and regulations of the Safety Committee based on the boating law passed last year this department received oodles of telephone calls from fishermen who said it was not only impossible to fish from their small boats but they were being pushed by speed boats pulling water skiers.

These vessels shall be operated at all times in a prudent manner and at such rate of speed as not to interfere with free and proper use of navigable waters and danger any craft or person. No vessel shall be operated at a speed exceeding five miles per hour. The time for 100 feet of the shore, a dock, pier, raft, float or any speed exceeding five miles per hour. SOFTBALL PLANNING - Schedules were drawn and rule revisions discussed when the men's softball league met Monday night in the Knock-Knock club room. Shown are Mrs. Theo Tudary, recreational director, Parks and Playground Commission, Donald Caldwell, secretary-treasurer of the league, and Anthony (Buddy) Pizolo, president.

Softball Season Opens May 29, Schedule Told

May 29 was set for opening night in the men's softball league at a meeting Monday night in the Knock-Knock Club. First game will pit Knights of Columbus against Youth Center while a new entrant, Reineke's, will tackle Kila Youth Center in the nightcap. Game time is 7:55 p.m.

A warm-up tournament was tentatively set for May 21 in the large playground behind St. Stanislaus College. Sixteen teams are expected to participate in the all-day affair with two games being played simultaneously.

Three new teams are among the eight members of the league. Reineke's squad is composed of some of Trapani's older stars, Krankey's, which is made up of many of Bankston's last year's players, and the Old Stars composed of such seasoned players as Curtis Matherna, Reuben Ruiz, Billy Osbourne, Red Davis and G. Maurigi.

Trapani Softballers Off to Fast Start

Behind the masterful pitching of Charlie Carter, Trapani's champion softballers took the season's first two practice games Sunday beating Youth Center 2-0 and the Waveland Cats 6-4 on the city softball diamond. In the nightcap Youth Center with Donald Caldwell pitching beat the Waveland Cats by a decisive 22-3 score.

Chevy

gentles rough roads with a Jet-smooth ride

Presto! Chevrolet changes old roads to new! Does it with a ride so smooth, handling so sure and going so sweet that it's almost magic.

Chevy owes its Jet-smooth ride to some mighty ingenious engineering... things like Full Coil suspension, precision balanced wheels, unique chassis cushioning and a superlatively insulated Body by Fisher. Nor does Chevy's ingenuity stop with ride. Take performance for instance. You've a choice of 24 power teams ranging all the way up to the right... 48-cubic-inch Turbo-Thrust V-8's with shift-free Turboglide transmission.

More ingenuity. When you check Jet-smooth Chevies prices with your dealer, you'll discover that nothing so easy riding was ever so easy to own.

DR. J. W. WATTS Will Preach At 1st Baptist

Dr. J. W. Watts will be guest preacher at First Baptist Church Easter Sunday. Professor of Old Testament Interpretation and Hebrew at New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary, his graduate studies include research leading to the master of theology and doctor of theology degrees. He also did special work at Oxford, University, England. Dr. Watts has served as pastor, Army Chaplain, foreign missionary, seminary teacher, dean and acting president. He served as missionary to Palestine in the beginning of that work by Southern Baptists.

Tots to Compete On Personality At OLG Party

A personality contest for pre-school children between the ages of two and five years will be featured at the Penny Party sponsored by the Parents' Club of Our Lady of the Gulf School at the school on Wednesday, April 12, from 11:30 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Any parent wishing to enter a child may mail the clipping to be used in this contest to the Sea Coast Echo, P.O. Box 11, Bay St. Louis, Miss. Prizes are to be awarded to first, second and third place winners.

Lunches will be served at the party and there will be games for adults as well as for children.

Easter Dinner At Yacht Club Slated Sunday

Easter Sunday dinner will be served at the Bay Waveland Yacht Club instead of the regularly scheduled dinner April 9. Roast beef will be the featured entrée. Reservations must be made by 10 a.m. Sunday.

Bernard Farrelly, manager, noted that it is hoped that the fish class boats will be put in the water in the next several weeks. Inclement weather has delayed repainting the craft.

Farrelly also announced that Friday night games will be resumed next week.

Masons To Meet

Bay St. Louis Masonic Lodge 229 will hold a business meeting at 7:30 p.m. Monday in the Masonic Temple, William M. Moore, territorial master, reports.

Beware of TERMITES

Protect Your HOME

Often, working termites are not discovered until it is too late—supports are eaten out, floors damaged, or structural frame work weakened. Gulf Coast Termite Exterminators offers low cost protective extermination to protect your home.
